

I request that you not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has improved my time at home by all but eliminating unwanted solicitation calls. This is one law which has delivered on its promise, and I am extremely happy with the results since it has been in use.